

Nominate Agent Of Change

POTSDAM - The St. Lawrence County Branch of the American Association of University Women is still accepting nominations for its 12th AAUW Agent of Change Award.

AAUW biennially honors a St. Lawrence County woman whose work as employer, employee or volunteer is noteworthy in one or all of these three areas: Her work has advanced the cause of women's rights; her work exemplifies the importance of equity for women; her work has brought about significant change in the community.

Any individual or group may submit a letter of nomination for someone who meets the criteria. AAUW Membership VP Lisa Wilson chairs the 2011 Agent of Change committee.

To nominate someone, please send a letter and supporting documentation outlining the nominee's contributions that meet the criteria to 52 South Main St., Norwood, N.Y., 13668 before Sept. 23. The award will be presented at the branch's fall membership meeting.

Membership in the St. Lawrence County Branch is open to anyone who supports the mission of AAUW. AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research. AAUW's commitment to educational equity is reflected in its public policy advocacy, community programs, leadership development, conventions and conferences, national partnerships and international connections.

For more information about AAUW locally, contact President Becky Gerber at 268-9957 or gerber1@potdam.edu or Membership VP Lisa Wilson at 353-2513 or email lwilson17@aol.com.

AAUW, with its nationwide network of more than 100,000 members, more than 1,000 branches conducting programs in communities across the country, and 500 college and university partners, has been a leading advocate for equity and education for women and girls since 1881.
